

‘THE WAVE’ – EXTENDED TEXT ESSAY PLANNERS

ARGUMENT / STATEMENT	MAIN POINT / EXPLANATION	EXAMPLE
Laurie is an inspiring character	She is an _____ and refuses to follow ‘the pack’	She refuses to go to The Wave _____ because she doesn’t agree with having to give the Wave _____.
	Despite pressure from others to become like them she stands by her _____.
	She puts aside being _____ and would rather live up to her morals

ARGUMENT / STATEMENT	MAIN POINT / EXPLANATION	EXAMPLE
Individuality is an idea that inspired me in the novel	I saw what happened to those who refused to follow the _____ of others
	I know how hard it is to stand up to your _____ and thus be an individual

ARGUMENT / STATEMENT	MAIN POINT / EXPLANATION	EXAMPLE
'The Wave' showed me that power can corrupt	Ben Ross started off with good intentions but soon became _____ up in the game	His wife told him "You're becoming a _____ in your own _____"
	_____ also became quite used to his new authority as a "monitor" of The Wave	He asked _____ if he could _____

ARGUMENT / STATEMENT	MAIN POINT / EXPLANATION	EXAMPLE
A character that learned a lesson was Mr. Ross	He realized that his e_____ could and did go too far.	He heard of 'Wave' members beating others up and b_____ them into joining 'The Wave'
	He learned that a position of power is an important one: people look up to you and offer to protect you.	Robert Billings even offered to be his _____ which showed us that Robert was taking things too far.